THIS AGREEMENT, is made and entered into this 23rd day of DECEMBER, 1994, by and between the OFFICE OF THE HUDSON COUNTY PROSECUTOR, ("Prosecutor"), located at 595 Newark Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey, and PBA LOCAL NO. 232, ("PBA" or "Association"), with its offices at 595 Newark Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey, acting herein on behalf of the County Investigators of said County Prosecutor, as hereinafter defined, now employed and hereafter to be employed and collectively designated as "Employees".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Prosecutor recognizes the PBA as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining representative for the County Investigators covered by this Agreement as hereinafter provided; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE II
ASSOCIATION SECURITY

1. All employees covered by this Agreement may join the Association, and become members of the Association.

2. Consistent with the other provisions of this Agreement and the laws of the State of New Jersey, the parties recognize that employees have, and shall be protected in the exercise of, the right, freely and without fear of penalty or reprisal, to form, join and assist the Association, or to refrain from any such activity.

ARTICLE III

PLEDGE AGAINST DISCRIMINATION AND COERCION

1. The provisions of this Agreement shall be applied equally to all employees, without discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, sexual orientation, perceived sexual orientation, disability, perceived disability, affectation, or political affiliation.

2. The Prosecutor agrees not to interfere with the right of employees to become members of the PBA. There shall be no discrimination, interference, restraint, or coercion by the Prosecutor, or by the Prosecutor's representatives, against any employee because of PBA membership. The PBA agrees not to interfere with the right of employees not to become members of the PBA, and that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restraint, or coercion by the PBA or its representatives against any employee because of non-membership.

ARTICLE IV

LONGEVITY

1. Employees shall receive longevity in accordance with the following schedule:
 - A. For employees with more than five (5) years of service, but not more than ten (10) years of service - $200.00 per annum;
 - B. For employees with more than ten (10) years of service, but not more than fifteen (15) years of service - $400.00 per annum;
 - C. For employees with more than fifteen (15) years of service, but not more than twenty (20) years of service - $600.00 per annum;

 - E. For employees with twenty-five (25) years of service - $1,000.00 per annum.
2. The longevity program shall be implemented only for full-time employees. Employees working less than a regular full-time schedule shall not be eligible for longevity.
3. In accordance with current practice, annual longevity shall be paid in pro rata amounts in the employee's regular pay check, in addition to base salary.

ARTICLE V

SALARIES

1. Salary increments for 1994 and 1995 shall be paid in accordance with the table of salary levels set forth in Appendix A, subject to the conditions and exceptions set forth in this Article.

2. Salaries for employees placed in the "Optional" category shall be fixed by the Prosecutor on a case-by-case basis at a level not to exceed $52,203 in 1994 and $53,248 in 1995.

3. Salaries for employees hired in 1994 and 1995 shall be fixed by the Prosecutor on a case-by-case basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Prosecutor reserves the right to grant, in the Prosecutor's sole discretion, advanced salary level placement to any newly-hired employee. In other words, the Prosecutor may place a newly hired employee on any level of the salary table set forth in Appendix A that the Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, deems appropriate.

4. The Prosecutor may, in his sole discretion, grant advanced salary level placement to employees, or place employees at salary levels higher than their current salary levels.

5. Employees shall receive their salary level increments for 1994 and 1995 effective January 1, 1994 and January 1, 1995, respectively, except for employees hired in 1994 and 1995. Employees hired in 1994 shall receive no increment until January 1, 1995 and shall receive no further salary increment during the term of this contract.

Employees hired in 1995 shall receive no salary increment during the term of this contract.

6. The Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, may withhold the 1994 salary increment from any employee who was absent without pay more than thirty days in 1993, in which case the employee will remain at his prior salary. The Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, may withhold the 1995 salary increment from any employee who was absent without pay for more than thirty days in 1994, in which case the employee will remain at his prior salary. Any employee who has had a salary increment restored pursuant to this Section may have the withheld increment restored in subsequent years, at the Prosecutor's sole discretion.

7. Employee Evaluation: The parties shall continue to negotiate on the issue of withholding 1994 and/or 1995 salary increments due to unsatisfactory evaluations. Pendency of such negotiations shall in no way restrict the Prosecutor from taking disciplinary action in appropriate cases.

8. It is understood and agreed that upon the expiration of this Agreement, i.e., December 31, 1995, Employees shall remain at the salaries they are then receiving, and shall be entitled to no further salary increment, increase or adjustment pending the negotiation of a successor Agreement.

9. Employees shall be paid bi-weekly. Bi-weekly pay shall be computed by dividing the employee's regular annual salary by the number of pay periods in the then current calendar year. All employees shall receive their full bi-weekly paychecks on Friday falling two weeks after the Friday on which the pay period ended. New employees shall receive their paychecks on a two week lagging basis immediately upon hire.

ARTICLE VI
HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

A. Except as stated in Sections B and C herein, all policies and practices regarding hours of work and overtime existing as of December 31, 1991, including, but not limited to, the prohibition against the cashing out of unused compensatory time, shall continue in full force and effect.

B. The overtime policy contained in Article VII, "Hours of Work and Overtime" Section B, of the parties' 1992-1993 collective negotiations agreement shall be extended from December 31, 1993 until July 8, 1994, subject to the following modifications that reflect a side letter agreement between the parties dated July 28, 1993, and effective June 28, 1993.

1. The work period utilized for the purpose of determining entitlement to overtime compensation shall be reduced from 28 to 14 days. Employees who work more than 80 hours during a 14 day work period shall be entitled to overtime compensation under the terms and conditions set forth in Article VII, Section B, of the parties' 1992-1993 collective negotiations agreement.

2. The terms, "work" and "hours worked", shall be defined as time actually worked by the employee, and as paid compensatory time off utilized by the employee. In other words, paid compensatory time off will be considered "time worked" for the purpose of determining entitlement to overtime compensation. No other form of paid time off, (i.e., vacations, sick days, personal days, holidays, etc.) shall be considered "time worked" for the purpose of determining entitlement to overtime compensation.

C. Effective July 9, 1994, the following overtime policy shall be in effect:

1. For the purposes of this Section:

- a. The terms, "work" and, "hours worked", shall be defined as time actually worked by the employee and as paid compensatory time off. Vacations, sick days, personal days, holiday time off, or any other form of paid time off shall not be considered "work" or "hours worked" under this Section, and shall not be considered in determining entitlement to overtime compensation. Time worked on holidays is already at premium pay, and shall not be counted toward overtime.
- b. The "work period" for purposes of overtime compensation shall be seven (7) days. For each employee, the initial work period for purposes of overtime compensation shall commence 12:00 a.m. on the morning of Saturday, July 9, 1994, and shall terminate 11:59 p.m. on the evening of Friday, July 15, 1994. Thereafter, the work period for purposes of overtime compensation shall commence 12:00 a.m. on the morning of Saturday, and shall terminate at 11:59 p.m. on the evening of the following Friday.
- c. The term, "regular rate of pay" shall be defined as the employee's annual base salary plus longevity, divided first by fifty-two (52) weeks per year, then divided by forty (40) hours per week.

2. Employees who work more than forty (40) hours during a seven (7) day work period shall receive compensation, at the rate of one and one-half times their regular rate of pay, for every hour worked beyond forty (40) hours during the seven (7) day work period, up to an overtime compensation ceiling of $3,500.00 per calendar year. This $3,500.00 overtime compensation ceiling shall apply to all overtime compensation earned in the 1994 calendar year, including compensation for overtime worked prior to July 9, 1994.

3. Once an employee reaches the $3,500.00 overtime compensation ceiling in a given year, including 1994, any further overtime worked during that calendar year shall be compensated by way of paid compensatory time off. However, the Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, may choose to provide paid compensation rather than compensatory time off.

- a. Paid time compensatory time shall be provided at the rate of one and one-half hours earned for every hour worked beyond forty (40) hours during a given seven (7) day work period.
- b. Employees shall be permitted to utilize their paid compensatory time within a reasonable period after making a request for such use, provided such use does not unduly disrupt Prosecutor's Office operations.
- c. An employee may accrue and/or bank a total of no more than 480 paid compensatory hours at any one time under this Section C.
- d. Accrued, unused paid compensatory hours earned or accrued pursuant to this Section C, subsection 3, shall be cashed out to the employee upon termination of employment. Such compensatory hours shall be cashed out at the employee's final regular rate of pay, or the average regular rate of pay received by the employee during his/her final three years of employment, whichever is higher. Only compensatory hours earned, accrued or banked pursuant to this Section C, subsection 3, shall be cashed out upon termination of employment.

4. If an employee reaches the $3,500.00 overtime compensation ceiling in a given calendar year, and also has accrued and/or banked 480 compensatory hours under Section C, subsection 3, above, he or she shall work no further overtime during that calendar year without the express consent of the Prosecutor. The Prosecutor shall retain the sole discretion, on a case by case basis, to authorize payment of overtime compensation beyond the $3,500.00 calendar year ceiling in such cases.

5. Effective the first pay period that begins after July 1, 1995, paid sick leave shall count as time worked for purposes of computing overtime entitlement.

D. Employees will not be directed to take days off from duty for the sole purpose of avoiding overtime compensation.

E. All overtime pay shall be paid not later than the second regular payroll date following the day the overtime is actually worked.

F. Compensatory time earned for overtime worked prior to January 1, 1993, shall remain available for the employee's use with special permission from the Prosecutor. However, under no circumstances shall such compensatory time for overtime worked prior to January 1, 1993 be cashed out to the employee. Further, no employee shall be permitted to utilize such compensatory time for overtime worked prior to January 1, 1993 until he or she has first exhausted any compensatory time he or she may have earned or accrued under Section C of this Article.

G. The Prosecutor is authorized to issue to employees a periodic summary listing the amount of vacation time, sick days, pre-1993 compensatory time, and compensatory time earned under Section C of this Article, that the employee has on record. Nothing stated in any such periodic summary shall in any way affect or modify any provision of this collective negotiations agreement pertaining to the circumstances under which compensatory time may or may not be cashed out. Nothing stated in any such periodic summary shall in any way be read to allow employees to cash out compensatory time earned for overtime worked prior to January 1, 1993.

ARTICLE VII

HOLIDAYS

1. Employees shall be entitled to the following paid holidays each year:

New Year's Day	Independence Day
Lincoln's Birthday	Labor Day
Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday	Columbus Day
Washington's Birthday	Veterans' Day
Good Friday	Election Day
Memorial Day	Thanksgiving Day
	Christmas Day

2. A. Recognizing that it is not possible for all employees to be off on the same day, the Prosecutor shall have the right to require an Employee to work on any of the holidays herein specified.

B. In the event an employee is required to work on any of the holidays named above, he/she shall be paid premium pay at the rate of one and one-half times his/her regular rate of pay for all hours worked on the holiday. Because the employee will receive such premium pay for hours worked on a holiday, hours worked on a holiday will not be counted toward determining whether the employee is eligible for overtime compensation under Article VI, "Hours of Work and Overtime", of this Agreement.

3. If any of the above listed paid holidays fall upon a Saturday, the holiday will be celebrated on the immediately preceding Friday. If any of the above listed paid holidays fall upon a Sunday, the holiday will be celebrated on the immediately following Monday. If the date of celebration of a holiday falls on a day the employee is scheduled to be off duty, the employee shall be provided an alternative day off. The alternative day off shall be taken on a date approved by the Prosecutor.

ARTICLE VIII

VACATIONS

1. All employees with one or more full years of service in the Office of the Hudson County Prosecutor shall receive 20 days vacation annually.
2. During the first calendar year of employment, Employees shall accrue vacation at a rate of 1 day per month worked. During the final calendar year of service, employees shall receive vacation on a prorated basis. Employees who work less than a full calendar year also shall receive vacation on a prorated basis.
3. Vacation schedules shall be established taking into account the wishes of the employees and the needs of the Prosecutor, with the Prosecutor having full and final authority to approve or deny any vacation request.
4. Unless good cause is shown, the Prosecutor shall respond to the employee's vacation request within 30 days after deadlines established by the Prosecutor for submission of vacation requests. No vacation request shall be honored unless it is submitted 30 days in advance; provided, however, that the Prosecutor may waive this requirement on a case by case basis in his sole discretion.
5. Vacation pay shall be based upon the employee's regular pay.
6. An employee shall be paid his/her vacation pay before starting his/her vacation, provided such vacation is scheduled at least 30 days in advance. The Prosecutor may waive this requirement on a case by case basis, in his sole discretion. An employee may also request that the Prosecutor defer vacation pay.

7. An employee whose employment is terminated shall receive a cash payment for all unused vacation time. The vacation time payable for the calendar year in which the employee is terminated shall be calculated on a pro-rated basis.

8. The Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, may allow an employee to carry no more than five days unused vacation from one calendar year to the next. Any request to carry over such unused vacation time must be submitted to the Prosecutor no later than December 1. In all other cases, vacation time not utilized in a given calendar year shall be lost. Under no circumstances may an employee be entitled to or use more than twenty-five vacation days in any given calendar year.

9. Upon retirement, an employee shall be entitled to His/Her full twenty (20) day compliment of vacation time for the retirement year. This section will not be effective until January 1, 1995. This Section shall not apply to any employee who utilized early retirement under any early retirement legislation that had been enacted into law on or prior to the date of execution of this collective negotiations agreement.

ARTICLE IX

2. Pay for any day of sick leave shall be at the employee's regular pay.

3. To be eligible for benefits under this Article, an employee who is absent must notify his/her supervisor as soon as possible before the start of his/her regularly scheduled work day, unless proper excuse is presented for the employee's inability to call. If the supervisor is not available, the employee must notify the Task Force Radio Operator as soon as possible, but no later than before the start of his/her regularly scheduled work day.

4. Sick days not taken by an employee in any one year shall then accumulate from year to year, without limit.

5. Employees who have been on sick leave may be required to be examined by a physician designated by the Prosecutor before being permitted to return to duty.

6. If an employee resigns, is dismissed or is laid off and has exceeded his/her allowable sick leave, the excess sick leave paid shall be deducted from any monies due him/her at the time of resignation, layoff or dismissal.

7. The Prosecutor reserves the right to unilaterally adopt, implement and apply work rules pertaining to sick leave abuse, excessive absenteeism, tardiness, and verification of sick leave.

2. Jury Duty

A. Jury duty is the responsibility of every citizen. Therefore, unless there is strong evidence that the Employee's absence from work would seriously handicap or impair, in any way, the operation of his/her position, the Employee shall be expected to serve.

B. Regardless of the length of time in performing this responsibility, the Employee's service record will remain unbroken.

C. The Employee will receive pay during the period of jury service equal to his regular wages minus jury earnings. A statement of jury earnings and time served must be supplied by the Employee to the County to allow verification of same.

D. If an Employee reports for jury duty and is excused that day, he/she shall be required to report back to his/her job for work, as soon as practical thereafter, except that employees shall not be required to report back to work if there are less than four (4) hours remaining in their work shifts.

3. Personal Leave

Effective January 1, 1995, each employee may utilize not more than two (2) personal leave days per year for use in cases of a legitimate personal need that cannot be attended to during off-duty hours. Personal leaves shall be subject to the prior approval of the Prosecutor or his designee, which approval shall not be unreasonably denied. An employee shall be required to request the use of personal leave at least one week in advance of such personal leave, except in cases of emergency. The Prosecutor, in his sole discretion, may grant not more than two extensions of such leave, each extension being not more than thirty days in duration.

2. An Employee shall be entitled only to one leave of absence with pay under this Article per injury or illness. 3. Any amount of salary or wages paid or payable to an Employee who is absent from duty due to job-related injury or illness under this Article shall be reduced by the amount of any Worker's Compensation award the Employee receives for temporary disability under the New Jersey Worker's Compensation Act.

ARTICLE XV
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

1. The PBA and the Prosecutor agree that the provisions of this Agreement are limited to wages and working conditions of the Employees covered, and that no provision of this Agreement shall be construed or interpreted to restrain the Prosecutor's full and absolute right to operate, control and manage its operations and to determine the manner and means of providing services to the public.

ARTICLE XIX

SCOPE OF NEGOTIATIONS

1. The Prosecutor and the PBA acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each party had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the scope of collective negotiations, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement, which constitutes the complete Agreement of the parties on all negotiable issues.

2. The Prosecutor and the PBA, for the term of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waive the right to negotiate collectively, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to negotiate collectively with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, including fringe benefits, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of the parties at the time they negotiated and signed this Agreement.

The Association president and/or his/her designee shall not leave the Prosecutor's Office premises during such release time without the approval of the Prosecutor.

ARTICLE XXII

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. The term "grievance" as used herein means a dispute between the parties over the interpretation, application or violation of this Agreement, or a dispute concerning policies and management decisions affecting Employees, but does not mean a dispute involving the discipline or discharge of employees.

2. Grievances shall be processed in accordance with the following procedure:

STEP ONE

Grievances shall be submitted in writing to the office of the Chief of Investigations within three (3) days following the date upon which the grievance occurred. Effective upon the date this contract is ratified by each party, the time in which a grievance must be filed shall be increased to ten (10) days. The grievance shall thereupon be discussed at a meeting consisting of the employee involved, the PBA representative, and the Chief of Investigations or his/her designee. The meeting shall be conducted within fourteen (14) days from the date the grievance is submitted unless the PBA and the Chief of Investigations agree to conduct the meeting at a later date.

STEP TWO

If a grievance is not settled at the grievance meeting described in Step 1, above, the PBA may, within five (5) days from the grievance meeting, appeal the grievance in writing to the Prosecutor, who shall respond to said grievance in writing within 10 days of his/her receipt of the grievance appeal.

STEP THREE

If a grievance appeal under Step 2, above, is denied, and only if the grievance concerns the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the terms of this Agreement, the PBA may submit the grievance to arbitration before an arbitrator appointed by the New Jersey State Board of Mediation. Such a request for arbitration must be submitted within five (5) days of the date upon which the grievance appeal is denied by the Prosecutor. Grievances concerning policies or management decisions affecting employees may not be submitted to arbitration.

3. The designated arbitrator shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and applicable laws of the State of New Jersey and of the United States. The arbitrator shall be restricted to the question of the contract interpretation presented. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, modify, subtract from, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement or amendment or supplement thereto. In rendering his written decision, the arbitrator shall indicate in detail his findings of fact and reasons for making the award. The decision and award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties, and upon the grieving employees. The costs of the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally between the parties. Any other expenses, including but not limited to the presentation of witnesses, shall be paid by the party incurring same. Each arbitration shall be limited to one grievance unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. Only the Prosecutor or the PBA may submit a grievance to arbitration under this Article.

4. Employer Grievances. Any grievance with the Prosecutor may have against the PBA shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the PBA. Representatives of the PBA and Prosecutor shall meet within fourteen (14) days from the date the grievance is submitted unless the PBA and Prosecutor agree to conduct the meeting at a later date. If the grievance is not resolved, the Prosecutor may submit the dispute to arbitration as provided in this Article.

5. The failure of a grieving employee or the PBA to file a grievance, to appeal a grievance, or to demand arbitration within the time periods contained in this Article shall constitute an absolute waiver of the grievance and shall deprive the arbitrator of jurisdiction to hear the grievance. The failure of the Prosecutor to answer a grievance shall be deemed a denial of the grievance on all applicable grounds.

6. The parties hereby agree that any judicial action to compel compliance with the arbitration clause of this contract, to confirm or enforce any arbitration award entered pursuant to this contract, or to vacate or modify any arbitration award entered pursuant to this contract, shall be processed in accordance with the New Jersey Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:24-1 et. seq.

7. Employees shall perform all duties as instructed even though they may feel aggrieved. During the pendency of any grievance, the employees affected by the grievance shall continue to comply with all work directives and work rules applicable to them notwithstanding that any such work directives or work rules are the subject of the pending grievance, except where compliance would pose a direct threat to the life and safety of the employees.

8. It is understood and agreed that a decision of the PBA not to exercise its right to request arbitration shall be final and binding upon all employees, and it is further understood and agreed that the PBA and its designated representatives have the authority to settle any grievance at any step.

9. Disputes involving the discipline or discharge of employees shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in this Article.

10. Any time lost by a grievant in the arbitration procedure shall not be compensated by the Prosecutor.
